Brief history on Pennstar –

Our credit union is currently not open to the public. We have within our Charter* certain Companies in the community that can offer membership to Pennstar. We have, over the years, added Companies and had other credit unions merge with Pennstar.

If your employer is in our charter, you and any immediate family member can join our credit union. Because we are a non-profit financial institution you are considered a member not a customer. You are part owner of the credit union. There are no outside stockholders and our Board of Directors are members of the credit union. They are volunteers and do not receive compensation

We offer a full range of financial products and are Federally Insured by the Federal Government agency NCUA.

Essay Question

What is your favorite thing about your current financial institution?

What is one thing you would change at your current financial institution?

What can Pennstar do, offer, provide to you, to keep you banking at the credit union? Please provide specific products and features that you would make you switch financial institutions.

If you were to ask your friends why they bank where to do, what would their reasons be?

And finally what would your suggestions be to Pennstar to help us grow membership while still maintaining our current charter.
